CHIEF JUDGE

Jayne Lewis

Jayne's passion for making a good drop began with wine, where she put a Bachelor of Science in Winemaking & Grapegrowing to good use in wineries across Margaret River and the US, in what seems like a lifetime ago.

In 2004, Jayne moved from grape to grain, cutting her teeth in roles at Little Creatures Brewing, Matilda Bay Garage and in 2008, as Head Brewer for Mountain Goat Brewery.

Thirsty for a beer she could completely call her own, she founded Australia's first female-owned brewery, Two Birds Brewing, alongside old friend, Danielle Allen.

Located in Melbourne's inner-west, Two Birds has filled its Nest with awards from around the world including Best Beer at The Wetherspoons Festival (UK) in 2015, Champion Brewery trophies at The Australian Craft Beer Awards (2014 & 2015) and the Australian International Beer Awards (2016), Jayne continues to make beer that she is proud of and that people like to drink.

With a Diploma in Brewing and countless judging credits for the likes of the World Beer Cup, Australian International Beer Awards and Australian Craft Beer Awards. Coming full circle, Jayne is chuffed to be back home in WA as Chief Judge of the 2019 Perth Royal Beer Awards.

Sean SYMONS

Sean began brewing for the Hahn Brewing company in Sydney Australia in 1996-2002 before transferring to the Tooheys brewery, part of the Lion Group where he held role of Brewing and Packaging team leader until 2006. He then moved to Vietnam and built the microbrewery Louisiane Brewhouse in Nha Trang, before returning to Australia in 2008 as Process Improvement Leader at the Castlemaine XXXX Brewing in Brisbane Australia, and Brewing Manager of the Swan Brewery in Perth until March 2013. Sean held the position of Chief Judge of the Royal Perth Beer Show from 2010 until 2015.

He currently serves on the committee of the Perth Royal Beer Awards, and is committee chairman for the IBD Convention 2020 in Perth, Australia

Sean is currently Head Brewer and Founder of White Lakes Brewing company in Perth, Western Australia. Sean also holds a Bachelor of Environmental Science from the University of Sydney, a Masters in Business Technology from the University of NSW, Australia and a Diploma in Brewing.

Andy SCADE

Andy fell in love with making beer in the late 90's when he was a cash strapped arts student. After reinforcing his appreciation for beer whilst back packing in Europe, he returned to university to study brewing and has spent the last 15 years indulging his passion for making great beers.

Most of this time has been spent at Little Creatures, finishing up as Brewing Manager giving him the honour of being the guardian of the iconic Pale Ale, one of his epiphany beers that sent him on this path all those years ago. Andy then got to indulge another dream by installing, commissioning and now brewing at Bevy Brewery in The Camfield next to the new Optus Stadium.

Clare CLOUTING

Clare is the Quality Assurance Manager at Gage Roads Brewing. Originally from the UK, her love of beer first started with traditional British cask ale and grew from there.

Clare has worked in Quality Assurance for 18 years with lots of different types of products including sauces, yoghurts, quiches and jalapenos. She loves working with beer and enjoys all the challenges that come with brewing and packing it.

She specialises in the creating and implementing of quality and food safety programs including sensory programs. In 2017 she co-founded a national beer laboratory proficiency program; BIRA with a few colleagues from some other well-known Australian craft breweries.

Matthew MARINICH

When you run a brewery and beer hall that pours a constantly changing lineup of beers and styles, what's the best way to ensure you know enough about each of them? For Matt Marinich, venue manager at Collingwood's Stomping Ground, the answer is hitting the books for hundreds of hours and flying to America – twice.

It's an undertaking that's proved well worth it, however, with Matt recently becoming Australia's – and, indeed, the Southern Hemisphere's – first Advanced Cicerone – the second highest level one can reach in the Cicerone program launched by Ray Daniels in the US in 2008.

Yet it's been a long time coming for Matt, who has been involved in Australia's good beer scene for years. Matt was among the first group of locals to pass the Certified Cicerone exam in Australia back when he was working at Fremantle's The Monk, one of many beer venues he worked at in and around Perth – the likes of the Sail & Anchor, Bob's Bar and The Quarie are also on his CV – before being enticed to head east.

Paul HYATT

Paul is an accomplished and decorated amateur brewer for 28 years and was certified as a beer judge with the Beer Judge Certification Program (BJCP) in 2004 while living in Alaska.

Paul has judged at almost all of the Perth Royal Beer Show events, the WA State Amateur Championships since 2009, and also at the Australian Amateur National Championships.

Paul keeps ties with his beer roots in the US as part of the Great American Beer Festival and the World Beer Cup Competition Team serving as Table Capt and now Block Capt for the past 15 years.

Will IRVING

Will started his career in 2007 with Feral Brewing Company.

Not knowing a gasket from a bung hole, he studied with the Institute of Brewing and Distilling in the UK via correspondence.

For the last 12 years, Will has worked in all aspects of brewing from small scale brewpub, large scale production to wild fermentation, experimentation and barrel ageing.

Will is currently in the role of Product Development Brewer and still happily employed by the Feral Brewing Co. Will was awarded Beer and Brewer's, Young Brewer of the Year in 2012 and (not so young) Brewer of the Year in 2017.

A close-up, slightly blurred photograph of a row of glasses filled with dark beer and a thick, light-colored head of foam. The glasses are arranged in a line, receding into the background. The lighting is warm, highlighting the texture of the foam and the dark color of the beer. The background is out of focus, showing more glasses and what appears to be a bar or restaurant setting.
